

BILLION DOLLAR TARIFF BILL IS AIM OF REPUBLICANS

WHICH WITH TWO BILLION DOLLAR INCOME TAX WILL PROVIDE REVENUE FOR THE GOVERNMENT

EXTRAVAGANT GOVERNMENT EXPENSES TO BE REDUCED BY THE NEW ADMINISTRATION

L. C. MARTIN.
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 20.—A billion dollar tariff is to be the aim of the republicans when the new administration comes into power next March, republican leaders here indicated today.

Senator Curtis, of Kansas, republican whip of the senate, said that he believes one billion dollars a year can be realized from tariff duty, an increase of 700,000,000 over present duties. Curtis said two billion dollars income tax from other sources will meet the needs of the government. Democratic officials recently announced that four billion dollars a year would be required for the next four years.

Curtis, and other republicans, however, said that immediate reduction of the army of government employees by about two hundred thousand will be made by the republicans when they take control, and other money-saving methods employed.

Curtis also predicted that "the annoying taxes" on articles of apparel, soda waters and other things in common use would be removed and that the income tax rate would be greatly simplified by the new congress.

A liberty bond bill probably along the lines suggested by President-elect Harding, that is, the exchange of liberty bonds now outstanding for a new issue and legislative provision for keeping the new bonds at par, is another measure to be considered by the sixty-seventh congress, Curtis said.

Hour of Universal Disarmament Has Not Yet Come

(United Press)
Geneva, Nov. 20.—"The hour for universal disarmament has not yet come," M. Lofontaine, Belgian delegate, declared in public session.

Lafontaine maintained that the economic situation is the most important confronting the world, insisting upon the right of the league "to rest upon the strength of the national armies which are at its disposition, then it will be at the mercy of no one."

INVESTIGATING BUILDING TRUST IN NEW YORK

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 20.—An alleged building trust was under investigation today by the Lockwood legislative committee investigating the house and building material situation here. Hugh White, vice-president of a big construction company, testified that a big decline had occurred in the price of building material since it became known that the Lockwood committee would probably investigate the trust.

FIVE BANKS IN N. D. CLOSE

CLOSING DUE TO CROP FAILURE IT IS ALLEGED AND WITHDRAWAL OF PUBLIC FUNDS

(By United Press)

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 20.—Five banks of western North Dakota were closed today as a result of withdrawal of public funds scheduled to become general Dec. 2.

Nonpartisan league headquarters and league newspapers are making capital of the straits of the institutions forced to close, declaring it was because opponents of the league succeeded in passing laws Nov. 2, repealing the league law requiring that public funds be deposited in the Bank of North Dakota.

The state owned and operated bank, one of the biggest state institutions inaugurated by the nonpartisan league, is being forced to call in public funds and redeposit in small western banks to prepare for the general threatened withdrawal of funds from state owned banks Dec. 2. The state bank law was to deposit funds in small western banks to help them through difficulties due to shortage of crops and extension of farm loans.

For this reason banks in the western part of the state are the first to suffer. Many more will be forced to suffer, it was predicted. Those who favor repeal of the law declared the closing of banks was due to crop failure.

Harding has spent most of his time on deck ever since leaving New Orleans. He strolls up and down smoking his pipe and chatting with passengers.

UNEMPLOYMENT DUE TO ATTEMPT TO KEEP UP PRICES

(By United Press)

Washington, Nov. 20.—Unemployment throughout the country as a result of part time operation of mills and factories, is directly due to attempts to keep up prices, Ethelbert Steward, government price expert, charged today.

"Prices are the only bar to full time production," said Steward, whose title is commissioner of the bureau of statistics of the labor department.

"Every mill in the country would operate full time if prices went down."

GERMANY'S STAND ON COLONIES IS BIG LEAGUE QUESTION

WHAT MEASURES WILL BE TAKEN UP TO FORCE HER TO OBSERVE TREATY IS A PROBLEM

BRITISH AND FRENCH MAKE NO ATTEMPT TO CONCEAL THEIR ASTONISHMENT AT THE GERMAN NOTE

HENRY WOOD.
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

The question of how the league of nations will meet Germany's threat to disregard that clause of the treaty of Versailles involving allocations of her colonies under various mandates, occupied the attention of the league assembly today.

Although other matters were to come before the assembly, it was privately admitted by many delegates that Germany's attitude furnished the one big problem now confronting the league and that the assembly must necessarily devote much time to finding a quick solution.

Unofficial conversations turned to what steps the league, intrusted with enforcement of the treaty, could take to compel Germany's acknowledgment of the binding nature of the pact. While none of the delegates would consent to be quoted to that effect, the impression seemed to be general that under the present conditions the league would have to depend solely upon economic pressure.

That this would be efficacious was regarded as certain owing to Germany's peculiar vulnerability in this direction at this particular time.

At the same time the question has arisen as to why Germany had proposed to evade the particular clause of the treaty to which she takes exception. The only suggestion that has been advanced in this connection is that she would refuse payment of indemnities either by outright defiance, or alleged inability to pay.

British and French headquarters here have made no attempts to conceal their astonishment at the German note.

CANADIAN DELEGATE CRITICIZES COUNCIL

SAYS LEAGUE COUNCIL WASTES ITS TIME ON SECONDARY PROBLEMS

(United Press)

Geneva, Nov. 20.—Delegate Rowell, of Canada, criticized the league council, saying it had wasted time with secondary problems. He demanded immediate settlement of the territorial dispute between Poland and Lithuania.

"The council is on trial before the whole world," he said. "The typhus report is a humiliating confession of failure. If a member of the council cannot make pledges for his own nation he had better resign and give way to another."

Rowell concluded with warning that unless the council is backed up by a few well done actions it will lose the respect of the whole world.

Move Baseball Headquarters to Chicago

(United Press)

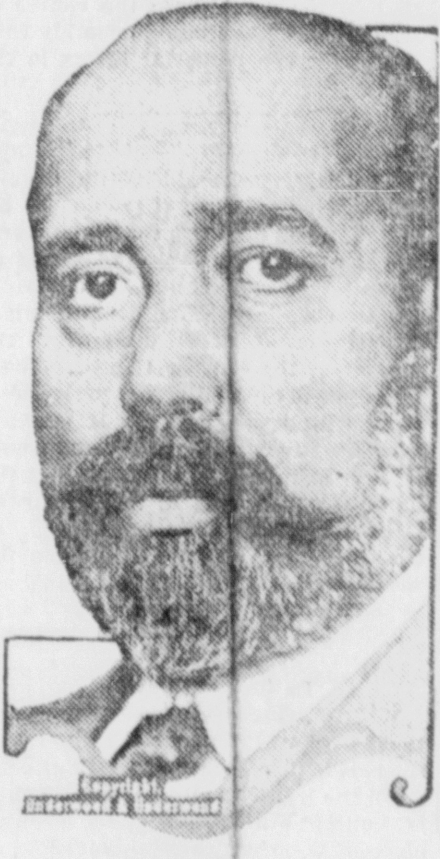

Cincinnati, Nov. 20.—This was moving day for the national baseball commission. Judge Landis, the new $42,500 a year ruler of baseball, came to Cincinnati personally to superintend the removal of all national commission papers and supplies which have been boxed up here since Gerry Herrmann resigned as chairman of the extinct commission last February. Judge Landis was conferring with Herrmann and John Bruce, secretary of the commission, regarding the duties of the new office.

HARVARD LEADS IN FIRST PERIOD

75,000 SPECTATORS SEE THE CONTEST BETWEEN BIG "I" TEAMS

HENRY FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Yale Bowl, New Haven, Conn., Nov. 20.—Yale faced the Marne of rather a disastrous fatal drive here this afternoon.

After a repulse in the rout of the real battle of Nassau, the Eli people looked with dread on the advance of the Red army from Harvard.

Harvard scored first in the game today. The score at the end of the first period was, Harvard 3, Yale 0.

It seemed that a majority of the globe's population was crammed into the bowl for the game. Seventy-five thousand spectators, the biggest crowd in American history, seemed to have been dumped into a gap in the ground.

According to a dispatch from Warsaw fifteen red divisions have been concentrating on the Polish front and attacks have been feared.

2,000 MEN PUT BACK AT WORK IN OVERLAND AUTOMOBILE FACTORY

Toledo, Nov. 20.—Two thousand men have been put back at work in the parts department of the Willys-Overland Automobile company, according to announcement made here yesterday by Vice-President Kilpatrick, in charge of production. The announcement also carried the statement that there has been no reduction, purporting to correct a rumor that some of the men accepted 35 cents an hour with a maximum of 57 cents an hour. The company in normal times employs about 6,000 men and women. It is said. The entire plant was shut down recently.

Diaz and Carranza Both Heroes in Mexico Now

(United Press)

Mexico City, Nov. 20.—Mexico has no hall of fame in which to display her heroes—heroes who are never deemed such until they are dead. But there are half a dozen vendors of plaster of Paris statuettes, men who wend their way through the capital's streets, displaying their wares on the sidewalks. Not only do they set the style in heroes, as they place a new bust on the market from time to time, but they provide an interesting insight into the fickle reactions of a revolutionary public.

A year or so ago there appeared the plaster likeness of Don Porfirio Diaz, the president, whose overthrow raised the nation-wide cry of revolutionary liberty. Don Porfirio's bust found a ready sale. He is a hero now. There have been many revolutions since Don Porfirio's time. The other day the statue vendors placed a new bust on the sidewalk. The face was familiar, as the original had been one of the best hated men in Mexico. There were whiskers, finally moulded in the plaster. It was Venustiano Carranza.

STATE LEGISLATORS MEET IN ST. PAUL

A COMMITTEE WAS APPOINTED TO FRAME BILLS DEALING WITH CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Nov. 20.—"We must adopt a large constructive program of legislation to correct the conditions which have caused discontent in our state," Rep. W. I. Nolan, Minneapolis, told legislators meeting here in accepting the unanimous endorsement of the conference for speaker of the house.

"We can put Minnesota at the forefront of the state by providing a system of co-operative marketing. In this way we can find a way to put an end to socialism."

"We pledge to enact legislation for the benefit of farmers as far as marketing their produce is concerned," Rep. R. A. Wilkinson, of Lake Elmo, said.

On motion of Wilkinson every congressional district delegation appointed a member of a committee to frame bills dealing with co-operative marketing after conferring with Governor-elect Preus and officials of the state department of agriculture. The conference opened with the election of Rep. Pattison, of St. Cloud, as chairman, and Rep. Neuman as secretary. Rep. F. J. McPartlin of International Falls, nominated W. I. Nolan as speaker. He was endorsed by the association and escorted to the room by Reps. Briggs, Bendixen and Owen.

FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER, 2ND DEGREE

(United Press)

Kenosha, Wis., Nov. 20.—Frank Lang was found guilty of second degree murder in connection with the death of Chas. Pacini, wealthy theatre man, shot while putting his automobile into the garage late at night, in circuit court here yesterday. A motion for a new trial on the ground of additional evidence was immediately filed by Lang's attorney and sentence was deferred pending hearing on the motion. Second degree murder carries a penalty of from 14 to 25 years.

TWO MILLION DOLLAR FIRE AT NEW ORLEANS

(United Press)

New Orleans, Nov. 20.—Damage estimated at $2,000,000 was sustained by the Cuyamel Fruit & Steamship company when fire believed caused by sparks from an engine, swept through the great sheds on the river front today.

The blaze fanned by a stiff wind, spread with great rapidity and it was with the greatest difficulty the steamships Truxillo and Poncelot were moved out into the river in safety. A gasoline tank on the Poncelot exploded but did no other damage.

Nine Persons Are Burned in New York Tenement House Fire

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 20.—Nine persons were killed today in a fire which swept a tenement house in Harlem. The ruins were being searched for more bodies. The charred remains of three children were among the first carried from the building. Most of the dead were unidentified. The tenement house had one hundred tenants.

At five A. M. fire was discovered on the first floor. The blaze spread so quickly that Harry Sturkers, who turned in the alarm, attempting to escape by the front door, was blocked by a wall of flames. He climbed out of a ground floor window. The roaring fire sweeping up the stairway had soon cracked through from basement to roof. Many women and children were hanging screaming from windows with the flames coming up behind them. Many fled down the fire escapes but others were unable to reach them and remained at the windows until the firemen reached them with ladders. Others jumped from the second story windows, many sustaining slight injuries.

The great crowd of spectators groaned when two figures who had come to the window suddenly vanished as a flame puffed out through the opening.

Firemen reported that other victims were trapped in their beds.

NO MORE GOOD OLD GHOSTS

Modern Substitute, It Must Be Admitted, Is More or Less Flabby and Unsatisfactory.

How long is it since you shivered at a ghost story? You have read scores of them in the last few years, stories of seances and trances, of cross messages and spirits trying to "break through," but did a single one have that hair-raising, marrow-chilling quality we are justified in demanding from a real ghost story? What is the matter with our modern spirits, anyway? In a day when the world has gone mad on the subject of efficiency, why do we find our ghosts so utterly incompetent, so unequal to their jobs?

Their great trouble is their lack of definite purpose. There is no reason whatever for their being, and consequently they are insipid, puerile, uninteresting things. They don't even call themselves ghosts; they are spirits, a much flabbier term, and the same general debility runs through their entire make-up. They have no wills of their own. They wait respectfully till they are summoned by the very mortals they ought to terrify. They answer, like bell boys, to the call of such silly devices as ouija boards.

Can you imagine a Shakespearean ghost waiting to be summoned? Those were specters with minds of their own. They appeared when it pleased them to appear, uninvited and more often than not undesired. You might shout "Avant thee!" till you were hoarse; you might call them "fool spirits" or any other uncomplimentary terms you could think of, but until their job was done not one inch would they budge. The modern spirit vanishes if you give him half a chance, but then he only came in the first place to oblige you, out of politeness and weakness.—Margaret L. Ferrand in the New York Evening Post.

greatest veneration by the ancient Romans, who believed that a few leaves of it worn on the person would protect against injury, and Roman brides who gathered and wore a wreath of verbeina were considered fortunate.

The plant came by its name from an old Roman custom. Whenever a dispute was had with another nation an official called verbanerius was sent to discuss it with the offending country. This official wore a wreath of verbeina. If war was decided upon an iron-tipped spear with a sprig of verbeina tied to it was shot into the enemy territory as a declaration of war.

The Druids dedicated the verbeina to their priestess, gathering it at the full moon. No one was allowed to touch it with the hands. It was uprooted by being tied to the foot of a young girl. Hungarian gypsies believe that if a cut is made in the palm of the hand and a tiny piece of verbeina leaf is placed in it and the wound allowed to heal over the person will be able to open all locks with a single touch.—Detroit News.

Pretty Chinese Legend.

One of the prettiest legends of Chinese mythology is that of the weaver girl and the herd lad who are said to be two stars in the sky.

In far off days, Jove took pity on their loneliness and married them. They were so happy in their communal bliss—that proves the date to have been very long ago in the days of "once upon a time"—that their nested their tasks and were banished to opposite sides of the Milky Way, where they wink at each other all the year round, but are only allowed to cross for a brief spell of happiness on the seventh day of the seventh moon.

On that night shy maidens place a few sticks of incense with some sweets and fruit on a table in the inner courtyard as an offering to the two stars, perhaps with an unexpressed prayer that in their own case the course of true love may run more smoothly than it did for the immortal lovers in the sky.

Varieties of "Smokes."

The Burmese maidens do exactly what Kipling says they do in his "Road to Mandalay," for they smoke a cigar ten inches long and as fat as a good-sized candle, and with a white paper covering. The longest pipes known are those used by the natives of the Belgian Congo. These pipes have stems ten or twelve feet long, with small bowls. If matches were used to light them a friend would be needed to apply the flame, but the native gets his light by merely thrusting the bowl into his camp fire. In Liege, in parts of Ireland, and in the southern United States, pipe-smoking by old women is common.

PUBLIC HEALTH AND THE RED CROSS

Very soon after the signing of the armistice, the American Red Cross made clear that the central feature of its peace-time program would consist of activities in the field of public health. An extension of its endeavors in this direction has come to be taken for granted, and it is generally regarded as appropriate to its history, traditions and actual achievements of the Red Cross before and during the war.

Many people do not realize the health conditions in America. They do not know that four hundred fifty thousand children under five years of age, died during the same eighteen months in which seventy thousand American soldiers died as the result of the war. Ten persons died from influenza to every American killed in battle. One out of every three men examined for the first draft was rejected as physically unfit. Malnutrition is causing the retarding of more school children in the United States than any other thing. After a survey of the children in one county in Montana, it was found that over sixty per cent were under nourished. Between ninety and one hundred thousand fatal accidents occur each year in the United States. Five times that number occur which so disable individuals that they can no longer earn their own living. Doubtless some one of our own citizens has contributed his or her quota to this number. It was to prevent such great loss and attendant suffering that the Red Cross First Aid Services were established and maintained.

Such instruction courses have been taught to over one million persons in this country. The Red Cross has expended in disaster relief thirty million dollars. The Junior Red Cross by training fourteen million is making the America of tomorrow school children in the philosophy of unselfishness, service, good will and Americanism. The new health service, built around the Red Cross Health Centre, is trying by education, to keep people well rather than sick, thus minimizing the spread of disease and preventing the thousands of deaths which occur annually in our country.

The Red Cross peace-time program is for you, your chapter, your community. Help support it by renewing your membership to the greatest of all organizations. "All you need is a heart and a dollar".

ANSWERING ROLL CALL

The spirit of the American Red Cross lives on, in peace as it did in war. As the war job lessened, the Red Cross partially transplanted its efforts from the soldiers, sailors, marines and the sufferers under the mailed hand of Mars, to those who now suffer in this country from thoughtlessness, the disaster of peace.

The Red Cross call in our community gives us an opportunity to become a part of the great plan of service which the Red Cross has made and given to the country. Fifty cents of every dollar membership will stay in the local chapter, and with this money our chapter will be able to carry on its peace-time program.

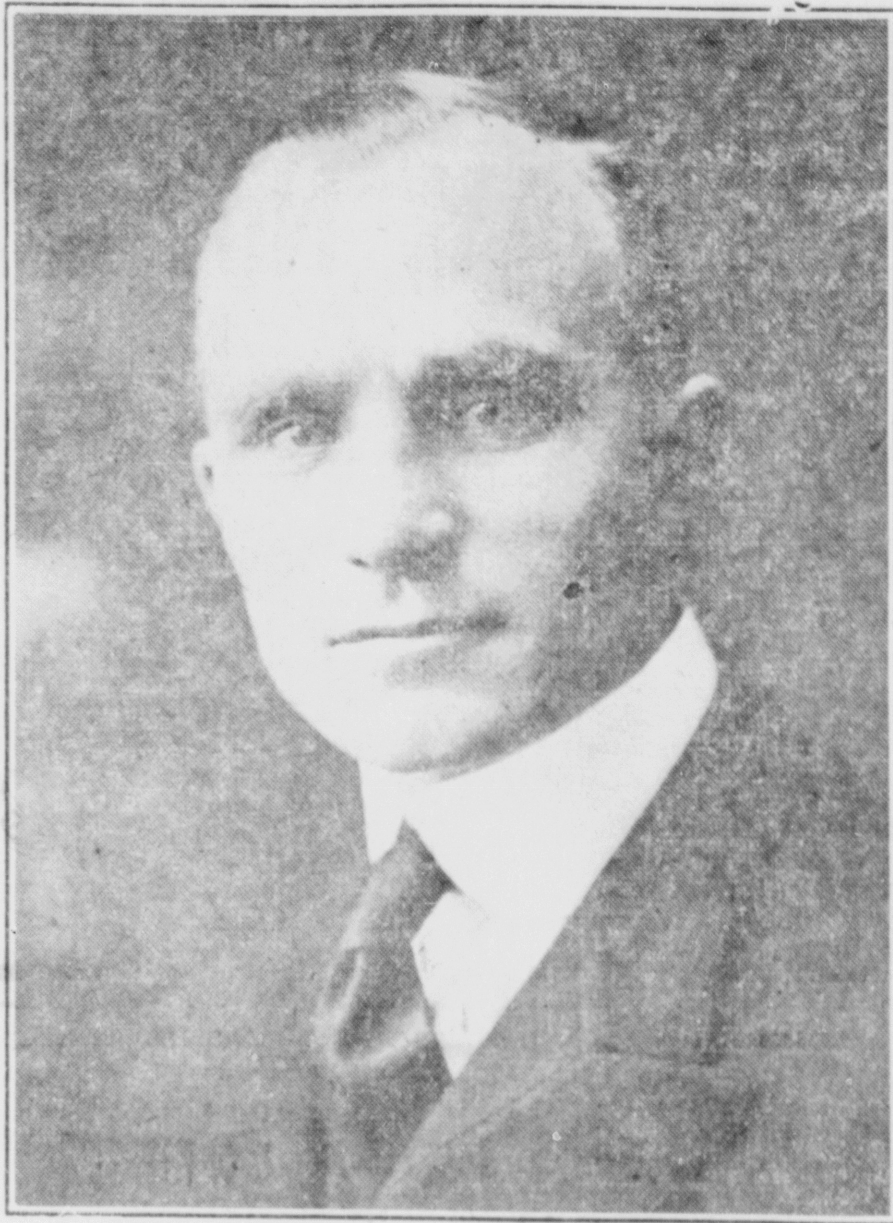

Members, this year means support and intelligent understanding of the aims and projects of the Red Cross. The Red Cross is not coercing people to join, but it does wish people to feel that it is a blessed privilege to belong to the American Red Cross.

ANSWER THE ROLL CALL TODAY!

Shipping men are never satisfied. Just a little while ago they were hollering for ships for their shipments, and now they're hollering for shipments for their ships.

When Judge Landis tackles that job as head of the baseball board of control, we hope he'll never fine a player $29,000,000.

Evangelist Now Here

Rev. A. B. Ost, of Seattle, Wash.

Above is the picture of Rev. A. B. Ost, recently of Seattle, Wash., the Young People's evangelist of the Northwestern Conference of the Swedish Mission church, now holding forth at the local Swedish Bethany church, 9th and Maple streets.

His service of meetings here began last Wednesday evening and are now in full swing. Features of tomorrow's services will be the exclusive use of the American language at 3 p. and 7:45 p. m. At 11 o'clock in the forenoon he will speak in Swedish on the subject: "The Chief Duty of the Church". His afternoon and evening topics will be "The Prerequisites of a True Revival" and "A Dead Church—Said to be Alive". The audiences have increased from night to night and tomorrow will doubtless see the Swedish Bethany church crowded to its doors.

A singular feature of Mr. Ost's campaign will be an All-Day Prayer Service next Monday, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning. Nothing, he says, is more important in this age than persevering prayer. Wherefore the subject of prayer fills a prominent place in his stirring discourses.

Services next week will be held in American every other night, beginning with Swedish Monday evening.

Costly Followers.

Costly followers are not to be liked lest while a man make his train longer, he make his wings shorter.—Francis Bacon.

First Use of Ether.

The first successful operation with ether was performed on Eben H. Frost, who testified that a handkerchief saturated with the mysterious something discovered by Dr. Morton, was pressed to his nose and he became unconscious, awakening only to find that a diseased tooth had been extracted without his knowing anything about it. The drawing of Mr. Frost's tooth was the initial operation which preceded the grand demonstration at the Massachusetts general hospital October 1846.

from the novel by

James Oliver Curwood

And What a Story!

Picture it!—Raoul Challoner with his wife, Nanette, and her baby lost to the world in their little cabin in God's Great Wilderness—happy in their hiding place free from law's injustice, their only friends a big black bear and a wolf-dog! Then comes O'Connor of the Northwest Mounted to take them back. And as man and wife and child, bear and dog, start down on the trail that leads straight to the gallows their whole wide world bursts into flame.

A forest fire so real that it staggers you! A battle through so fierce that it awes you. And a finish so fine that you'll cheer it!

You'll have to come early if you want to get a seat.

See these wild animals in action! Something else to make you remember "NOMADS OF THE NORTH."

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS

Jury in the Case of Catherine Undraitis vs City Awards Her Verdict of $5,000

CHARGED CITY AS NEGLIGENT

Jury Out Deliberating From 2:40 P. M. Friday Afternoon. Returned Verdict at 8 P. M.

$5,000 damages was awarded the plaintiff in the case of Catherine Undraitis as administratrix of the estate of Joseph Undraitis, deceased, vs the City of Brainerd. The jury retired to its deliberations at 2:40 p. m. and returned a verdict at 8 p. m. The complaint charged negligence on the part of the city and blamed the municipality for the accidental death of Mr. Undraitis, the latter meeting death, it was claimed, when he touched a charged guy line.

The plaintiff sued for $7,500. Her attorneys were Alderman & Clark. For the city were, City Attorney D. H. Fullerton and M. E. Ryan.

The case of Clarence Soder is now on trial before Judge W. S. McClenahan. Swanson & Swanson are his attorneys, and the state is represented by County Attorney S. F. Alderman.

PRAISES TRAFFIC OFFICER

To Editor Brainerd Dispatch:
I would like to say a few words if you will give me a little free space in your valuable paper.

We have a traffic officer now in our city that Brainerd can feel proud of. Mr. Abrahamson is the officer's name. Of the many speed cases he has brought in court, I see he has lost but one, and he favors no one. I have a car myself and if the traffic officer sees me going faster than the speed limit, he is entitled to arrest me and I surely will give him credit for it.

Now since our honorable Mayor Little and our city council appointed an officer like Mr. Abrahamson, my children can go with safety to our school and especially across the street. Our city should and can well afford to keep all the year around a man who does such good work.

Respectfully,
HENRY FALLON,
Northeast Brainerd

CONCERTED EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO HELP THE FARMERS

BY ALL LEGISLATORS OF WEST AND MIDDLE WEST REGARDLESS OF PARTY

L. C. MARTIN,

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 22—Party lines are to be obliterated and forgotten by middle west and western members of the house and senate this winter in an effort to remedy the situation which has stirred resentment among farmers and livestock raisers, it was learned here today.

Informal conferences held among republican and democratic senators from western states have resulted in a decision to hold a formal conference of all senators from western states soon after the December session begins, Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, said today.

At this conference a working program is to be mapped out if possible for concerted action by senators from farm and livestock states regardless of party, in the interest of the producer.

The first test of strength is to be made on the Kenyon-Kendrick packer bill which will come before the senate as soon as it meets.

Hitchcock said that he and other democratic senators will support the bill energetically and will seek to help remedy some of the evils the corn and wheat farmers are complaining of.

Senators hostile to any regulation of packers are prepared to talk the bill to death, but Hitchcock predicted they would have difficulty in side-tracking the measure because of the strong support at their command.

MERRY MUSICAL PLAY "BUDDIES"

WILL BE PRESENTED AT THE
NEW PARK THEATRE WED-NESDAY, NOV 24

When the Selwyns present "Buddies" at the New Park theatre on Wednesday, Nov. 24th, this city will have an opportunity of seeing the smartest comedy, and hearing the most hitting music which New York produced last season. This comedy by George V. Hobart with lyrics and music by B. C. Hilliam not only tells the most charming love story which the stage has seen for many a moon, but bristles throughout with scintillating dialogue which is threaded with humor that is as human as it is rare. Mr. Hobart's romance of quaint Brittany is a fragrant tale of a gentle maid of France and an American soldier who is too shy to declare his love. Running parallel with infant romance is that of "Louise," the little lady from Lynn who arrives in Brittany most inauspicious moment background to this double are the American "Buddies" their keen wit, unflagging absorbing interest in which pertains to the hap "Julie" and "Babe," the ceures of the story. With chie fervor "Julie" falls in "Babe," who, though adorin too bashful to declare his add to "Julie's" troubles from America a deep-dyed who threatens to besmirch ed name of "Julie's" twin bro has given his life for F "Julie" will not marry him, the state of affairs when "So American private who is best friend, and who is hap gaged to be married to Loui land tries to help the lovers, the effort all but wrecks his o life. Fellow workmen come and laughingly, even fore made him to accompany them the most notorious dance drink emporium in the vilere that Abel meets Glory daughter of the Portuguese, of passion and love riorals. Abel scorns her advances and es her woman's vanity to rebellion. Meantime "the need to fill Abel with liq for the first time in his life es intoxicated.

Because e ill feeling between the Portu e and their neighbors, Abel is araged by his people as the re- ult of his marriage to Glory. He also loses his job.

Abel's mother dies of grief over her son's disgrace, and Abel and Glory go from bad to worse. Glory later carrying on an affair with Jose manager of the circus. And as the months drag themselves into years, two children are born to Joan and Dave. Then Fate deals unkindly with this little family and Dave is drowned while trying to make shore in a small boat.

Fate also continues to take a hand in this tangle of hearts and sorrows, and Glory one night becomes angry with her illicit lover, Jose, and tries to stab him. Running from the circus tent she is fired upon by Jose. Glory dies out on the sand dunes, alone.

Abel, hearing of the tragedy, takes his unfaithful wife out to sea, for burial, saying that she is too bad to be interred in the soil of his forefathers and of his own people.

The townspeople hold a meeting to decide what shall be done with Joan's children, and Abel, down and out though he is, appears and says he will take one of the boys. The people laugh at him, but Joan still believing in him, agrees that he shall take one of the boys. As time goes by Abel continues to worry, not be-
